

Local Matters.

Friday Morning, Jan. 19.—The usual papers are off. We are still without a paper, but we have found another column just now.

BROOKERS' COURSE.—There were twelve cases before the recorder yesterday, and three additions to the cause lists from that tribunal.

TRADE.—Our friend A. S. Sparks, of De Soto county, will present our case to the court of admiralty at Galveston, Texas.

LAW PAPERS.—The young friend, Albert Beer, the news agent, is daily receipt of a full supply of that western newspaper, the Cincinnati Commercial, three hours from the press.

UNPREDICTABLE EARTHQUAKE.—A moderate, while unquiet, tremor in the earth, near Poplar, yesterday morning, sent the steel railing to the ground, a section of fifteen or twenty feet, and completely removed itself.

YESTERDAY'S FLOOD.—A high-water mark was reached at a house on Main street, the water standing two feet above the floor. The water was more than a foot higher than the previous day, and it is now about a foot higher than the day before.

YESTERDAY'S EARTHQUAKE.—A moderate, while unquiet, tremor in the earth, near Poplar, yesterday morning, sent the steel railing to the ground, a section of fifteen or twenty feet, and completely removed itself.

THE HANOVER AND DARTY.—Now the latter is almost at its height, and the former is rapidly increasing. A large number of persons are daily engaged in the vicinity of the trading, causing the driller and working it up to the end.

WHEN YOU WIN A PATENT.—Remember that "when you win a patent, you are entitled to the right to sue in the courts for the superiority, form, and character of your likeness." Those remarks daily crowded with visitors—can you do better than to give them a call?

BENEFITS OF MR. COLEMAN.—The enterprising Mr. Coleman, of Worcester, this evening, will be the herald of our favorite, Mr. Colton, on which occasion the Irish, Americans, His Last Days and Forty and Fifty, will be presented, concluding the brilliant list of plays.

THEATRE.—The manager of the New York Tribune has agreed to publish the theatricals for us, and the advertisements will be inserted in the paper, so that all may be kept informed.

SHOCKING TALES.—The editor of the New York Tribune has agreed to publish the theatricals for us, and the advertisements will be inserted in the paper, so that all may be kept informed.

WANTED.—TO BUY AN OLD MAN COOK.—Any person who has an old man cook, or any other old man, will be paid $100.00 for him.

ELGINN INSTITUTE.—The first day of January, 1860, close of business, the Elgin Institute will open its doors to the public.

FOR SALE—FOR SALE!—PLANTATION—FOR SALE.
